

QUICK GUIDE TO

postgraduate degree-seeking fellowships

This guide provides a sampling of the many, many fellowships available to graduating seniors and recent graduates, which will fund a postgraduate degree. Depending on the fellowship, this may be a master's, doctoral, or professional degree. Every opportunity is unique - so it is important to closely review the eligibility requirements, selection criteria, and application process.

And, remember! As a graduating senior or recent graduate, URF is here to support you throughout the application and selection process. So, please do not hesitate to reach out!

Learn more at: urf.columbia.edu

Make an appointment to speak with an URF advisor at:
urf.columbia.edu/urf/about/advising

- Rhodes Scholarship at Oxford
- Churchill at Cambridge (STEM)
- Marshall Scholarship in the UK
- Fulbright US Student Program
- St. Andrew's Society of New York for study in Scotland
- DAAD Fellowships in Germany
- Kellett, Doctorow for study in the UK (both are CC only*)
- Harry J Carman* (CC only)
- National Science Foundation - Graduate Research Fellowship Program (NSF-GRFP)
- Michel David Weill at Sciences Po, Paris
- Pearson for Classics study
- Ellison Scholars at Oxford
- The Émile Boutmy Scholarship at Sciences Po, Paris
- Gates-Cambridge Scholars
- McCall MacBain at McGill University
- American-Scandinavian Foundation
- Holthusen-Schindler at Columbia Law School* (CC only)
- Saltire for study in Scotland
- Schwarzman Scholars at Tsinghua University
- Yenching Academy at Peking University
- Mitsubishi Trust in Japan
- Samvid Scholars study in the US
- Marshall-Motley for Law School
- Eisenhower Global Scholars at Oxford or IE in Madrid
- Quad Fellowship (STEM)
- Soros Postgraduate Fellowship for New Americans
- Rangel International Affairs
- Foreign Affairs Information Technology
- William Clark, Sr. Diplomatic Affairs Fellowship
- Payne International Development
- Pickering Foreign Affairs
- American Australian Association Graduate Fund
- Forrest PhD Scholarships in Australia
- Knight-Hennessy at Stanford

Columbia sponsored or supported opportunity*